BARNETT HILL
A Surrey Hills Destination

Barnett Hill is truly a treasure of a property tucked away behind a sweeping driveway high in the Surrey Hills. Its rich history began as a private residence for the Thomas Cook family, before going on to become a Red Cross Hospital during WW2. Barnett Hill today is a beautiful design hotel with 56 rooms & suites, 9 private hire spaces, a series of terraces which look over 26 acres of grounds and a beautiful rosetted restaurant, The Oak Room and the 1905 cocktail bar. Barnett Hill can accommodate up to 100 guests and makes a perfect option for exclusive hire.
