ALEXANDER HOUSE
Hotel & Utopia Spa

A transformed Jacobean mansion, Alexander House was once the residence of Percy & Mary Shelley. Today, our five-red star property is comprised of 58 rooms & suites, 7 private hire spaces, a Champagne bar, several terraces and courtyards and a Utopia spa. Our largest suite, named after the Shelleys, holds 90 guests and can be combined with the Wakehurst for larger events of up to 130. More intimate occasions can enjoy such beautiful drawing rooms as the Asquith & Churchill.

ROWHILL GRANGE

Hotel & Utopia Spa

Rowhill Grange is undeniably beautiful - originally built as a holiday home for Alice Alexander over 150 years ago, it still bears a New England charm and certainly evokes the sense of escape. With 38 rooms & suites, 6 meeting rooms and 15 acres of gardens it perfectly caters for smaller and larger groups alike. The Pavilion and The Clockhouse are both separate to the Main House and offer exclusive use options. Additionally, Rowhill Grange has several terraces overlooking the gardens, Elements Bar & Lounge and the rosetted restaurant, RGs.

LANGSHOTT MANOR

Historic Elizabethan Hotel

Langshott Manor dates back to 1580 making it our second Tudor-era property. Very much in the Elizabethan style, Langshott Manor is charming and characterful with warm, exposed original brickwork, wooden beams and roaring fireplaces. Now the hotel is home to 22 rooms and suites, 4 private hire spaces, our beautiful two-rosette restaurant The Mulberry as well as terraces overlooking the beautiful garden and original moat. Langshott Manor is perfect for exclusive use and you can expect an especially warm welcome and to feel right at home.
